Call to order & roll call – Time: 5:40pm

Officer reports:

Internal:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Internal has run out of Happy Hour funds. Admissions will be paying for next week happy hour, a joint event with current and prospective students. Joint FEMBA/EMBA & full time happy hour was a success. Look forward to more joint happy hours, occurring once a month on either Wednesdays or Saturdays.

External:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Full time students should expect new business cards at the end of this quarter. Student affairs will be covering costs for the cards. A replacement name tag will also be provided. Questions? Ask Eve Barker. ▪ Externals have received all club business plans for the upcoming year. All have been approved, with one exception. Net Impact currently has only one officer, and the club status is in question. ▪ Abdul Rastagar has submitted an application for a new club, the International Business Association. New club was approved, see below. ▪ Brian Gibbs will be taking over leadership for Challenge for Charity next year.
Finance:
Communications:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Continuing to collect photos for the spring banquet. Jon Kea has graciously volunteered to format the slides for the slide show. ▪ The list of new/renewal magazine subscriptions has been compiled. To allow for greater magazine/newspaper variety we will not be renewing the Wall Street Journal subscription. The Wall Street Journal continues to be available through the e-library, and can be accessed by all Merage students. Magazine subscriptions will be renewed on an annual basis, with reorder occurring in the fall.
Technology:	Work continues on the Merage website. VPs are currently in discussing the site with David Lim in Marketing.
Academic:	It looks as though the 2006 International Residential will be held in Prague.

Section Reps:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ FEMBA and EMBA representatives mentioned all the positive feedback they received from the Merage softball tournament. They would like to see more joint events with the full time program in the future. ▪ FEMBA's and EMBA's enjoyed Wednesday's joint happy hour, and look forward to more joint happy hours in the future.
