

Students to Start-ups

Entrepreneurial Skills Workshop Series

This workshop is for:

UC Irvine students and community members actively starting or planning to start new businesses.

You will learn:

Before you run into legal trouble, learn how to avoid them. Score will cover the following topics:

- how to analyze a contract or a lease
- the tax ramification of a C-Corporation vs. and S-Corporation
- what to do when your business partner wants out

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Before spending thousands on an attorney learn how to avoid the problems today.

About Presenter:

Prior to entering public accounting Richard C. Ginnaty was Vice President and Controller for a $35 million multi-state, multi-company manufacturer of adhesives and coatings. He has practiced public accounting in Orange County since 1983, serving a diverse group of businesses and industries. Dick is currently an instructor at CSUF's School of Business and Economics teaching "Entrepreneurial Accounting". For the last fifteen years he has also been a presenter for SCORE's pre-business workshops. In that role, Dick has instructed over 1,500 new business owners on accounting issues. He has graduate degrees from both UCLA and USC.
