Retail “Shop Talk”

Perspectives on issues impacting the retail industry

Wednesday, April 22, 2009
6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

The University of California Irvine Real Estate Alumni Association (UCIREA) presents “Shop Talk” – perspectives on issues impacting the local retail industry given by developer/owners, retailers and brokers. Topics discussed will include impacts of consolidations, bankruptcies and re-letting big boxes, and how companies are managing through the uncertain economic climate.

PLEASE RSVP to alumni@ucirea.org BY APRIL 17TH – SEATING IS LIMITED. Admission to the event is $20 and will be collected at the door. Drinks and light hors d'oeuvres will be served throughout the event. Parking is located in the parking structure adjacent to the MPAA building. Please refer to the attached map and directions – parking charges apply.

The event will be moderated by Jeff Dodd, Senior Vice President, The Irvine Company Retail Properties and Jeff Moore, Managing Director, CB Richard Ellis. Speakers featured at this event include:

- Keith Eyrich, President, Irvine Company Retail Properties
- Pat Donahue, President, Donahue Schriber
- Larry Meyer, EVP Store Development, Forever 21
- Jeff Nichols, VP Store Development, Home Depot
- Scott Kaplan, Senior Managing Director, Retail – Western Division, CBRE

Please join us on April 22, from 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm at the Executive Commons/MPAA 100 at The Paul Merage School of Business.
