Introducing...

The Paul Merage School of Business Corporate Partners Program

YOU ARE A BUSINESS LEADER. AND SO ARE WE.

"The Corporate Partners Program is a membership organization linking the business community and The Paul Merage School of Business. Establishing solid partnerships with the Merage School is critically important to AMO; they enable us to take advantage of consulting projects, internships and the recruitment of quality talent among other benefits. By maintaining a high level of involvement, we play a critical and influential role in the future of The Paul Merge School of Business as a nationally recognized business school."

AIMEE S. WEISNER
Executive Vice President, Administration and Secretary
Advanced Medical Optics, Inc.

"Membership in the Corporate Partners Program is a key part of our community relations strategy at Kingston. It affords us the opportunity to discuss common business issues with a diverse group of industry leaders facilitated by The Paul Merage School of Business faculty and staff. We also benefit from early access to outstanding students for internships and recruitment as well as access to The Paul Merage School of Business faculty for training or consulting engagements."

STEPHEN RODRIGUEZ
Director of Financial Reporting Systems, Kingston Technology

Solid partnerships with the business community are critical to our success. Organizations like yours are excellent examples of innovative thinking and ideas put into action every day. We can learn from you, and we strive to provide value to you in return.

The Paul Merage School of Business at UC Irvine consistently ranks among the top 10% of business schools world-wide. We graduate business leaders with the exceptional ability to help grow their organizations through strategic innovation and analytical decision-making, an achievement made possible by our faculty, students and partners through an intimate learning atmosphere that enables a highly collaborative environment.

By maintaining a high level of quality involvement, Corporate Partners play a critical and influential role in the future of the Merage School. The Corporate Partners Program attracts involvement from a diverse mix of companies and seasoned professionals, ranging in size from entrepreneurs to established companies. Each member company brings a unique perspective on contemporary management challenges, and each offers answers and insights for the future through lively dialogue.

Whether you take advantage of our MBA talent, become a mentor, or attend our many special networking events, your affiliation with one of the world's top research institutions will bring exceptional business opportunities and prestige.

Please join us.

INVEST IN THE FUTURE

Corporate Partners provide much-needed financial support to The Paul Merage School of Business through an unrestricted fund, enabling Dean Andy Policano and the School to apply funds where and when they are most needed. The program contributes to the overall health and future of the Merage School like no other, with investments applied to outstanding student recruitment, technology upgrades, and other key initiatives.

"Precept's partnership with The Paul Merage School of Business intertwines business and community. Being in the healthcare benefits business, we have a keen interest in the Merage School's Healthcare Executive MBA Program. We have also participated in the annual Healthcare Symposium. The Corporate Partners Program enables networking with fellow business executives while providing topical presentations by local business leaders. We give back to the community while participating in the MBA Mentor Program and engaging in the MBA consulting program. Our experience has been diverse, rewarding and enriching."
