The Irvine Company

Julie is currently the Senior Vice President of Information Technology at the Irvine Company. The Irvine Company is a 110-year-old, privately held company known for its comprehensive focus on quality of life in the balanced, sustainable communities it has planned and developed on the Irvine Ranch in Orange County, California. It is a diversified organization of master planners, community builders, real estate investors, and asset managers.

Prior to joining the Irvine Company, Julie was a Partner with Accenture where she worked across industries helping her clients architect the future of their global organizations and supporting them through large-scale transformation. During her career at Accenture, she led and managed Accenture's Organization and Change Management practice across North America. This practice helps clients optimize value from their technology investments. Julie has lived and worked in many countries and now resides in Orange County with her husband and two children.
