

Armando Feigl is a Senior Vice President and Team Lead Private Banker with City National Bank's Private Banking team. He works with a team of experts in Orange County to deliver comprehensive wealth management and banking solutions to high net worth individuals and families, entrepreneurs, professional service firms, and nonprofit organizations.

Mr. Feigl has 15 years of professional banking experience. Prior to joining City National, he was a Private Banking team lead at Union Bank, and was a Premier Client Manager at Bank of America.

Mr. Feigl earned his bachelor's in Business Administration-Management at Henderson State University in Arkansas, magna cum laude, maintains a Certified Wealth Strategist designation, and holds a certificate in Financial Planning. Additionally, he is FINRA registered and holds Series 7, 6, 63, and 65 licenses.

For more information about City National Securities, Inc. and this financial advisor, please see FINRA BrokerCheck at <http://brokercheck.finra.org/>.