

Ashley is a Certified Financial Planner™ with Ellevest and has spent her career focusing on helping women reach their goals and build their wealth - with an impact. She works with those who value a holistic, straightforward investment approach that's good for their hearts and their wallets.

Ashley joined Ellevest after spending nearly 9 years at Registered Investment Advisor firms and has a unique understanding of the emotions & complex decisions during life transitions. With a proven process to reduce stress, she takes the time necessary to bring clarity to the financial picture. This results in improved confidence and better decision-making by having a trusted advocate and fiduciary to stand by their side each step of the way.

Ashley received her B.S. from Miami University (Ohio) and her M.A. from Bowling Green State University in Economics. She has also taught several college classes in Economics.

Actively involved in the community, Ashley is a member of the Orange County FPA, the National Association of Personal Financial Advisors (NAPFA), and CalCPA. Ashley has volunteered her time on a number of philanthropic projects, including the Center of Investment and Wealth Management at UCI (LIFEvest), "It's Your Money," Alzheimer's Association, and is a co-founder of the Austin Kudzia Scholarship.
