

Carla L. Furuno

Carla Furuno, senior vice president, manages City National Private Client Services in the San Diego and Orange County region, leading a team of wealth management, banking and credit professionals in the coordinated delivery of financial products and services to local high-net-worth individuals and their families, professional firms and nonprofit organizations. Based at City National's Orange County Regional Center, Ms. Furuno assists clients with a broad range of specialized banking services, including estate and financial planning, trust services, money management and jumbo mortgages and loan requests. Ms. Furuno joined City National Bank in 2000 as a senior relationship manager in the San Francisco Bay Area, and assumed her current position in October 2005. Previously, she spent 20 years with Union Bank of California in San Francisco as a private banking relationship manager and a commercial loan officer. Ms. Furuno resides in Laguna Niguel with her husband and has four children.