

Mr. Glenn Hamburger has been Senior Vice President of Wealth Management Group - Orange County at Bank of the West since February 2016. Mr. Hamburger has more than 25 years of experience as a wealth management executive. He served as Senior Vice President of Private Client Services at City National Bank since August 2010. He served as Group Manager for Comerica Bank's Wealth Management Group, where he was responsible for three private banking offices. Before joining Comerica, he served as a Banking Manager at Union Bank. He has a Bachelor's Degree from the University of California at Santa Barbara and a Masters of Business Administration from California State University at Long Beach. Glenn is also involved in several community activities which include the Corporate Partnership Committee with Children's Hospital of Orange County, Junior Achievement, and March of Dimes.