

Ila Gomez is a Vice President for Banc of California for the Specialty Markets Group for Deposit and Treasury Management. Ila leads business development strategy and manages client relationships in the Specialty Markets group. Her diverse banking experience includes 10+ years in progressive VP roles advising clients and implementing industry-specific lending and investment solutions for middle-market business owners and HNW clients.