

Jerry Braakman is the Executive Vice President, Chief Investment Officer, and Managing Director of First American Trust. His previous experience spanning 20 years allows him to manage all Trust and Wealth Management decisions within the firm. When he started at First American Trust, Jerry worked his way up from varied managerial positions, up until his previous position, a manager for First American's $2.3 billion corporate investment portfolio. Jerry is also a UCI alumni, receiving his Master's in Business Administration in 2008 and Bachelor's in Economics in 1995. Now, Jerry builds and executes the vision of firm, and obtains his clients' goals while backed with an experienced fiduciary and investment team. In addition, Jerry also provides sound expertise and advice on the outlook of financial markets to The Wall Street Journal, Associated Press, Reuters, CNBC and Bloomberg. Jerry is married and has two kids.