

Raleigh Watson has 21 years of experience in the financial services industry, 16 years in institutional sales. Watson has combined the knowledge he has obtained in both industries to have a successful career in sales. He received his Bachelor's Degree in Business/managerial economics and spanish from Ohio Wesleyan University. He also earned his MBA at the USC Marshall School of Business with emphasis in accounting, finance, and marketing. Watson is currently the Vice President of Alliance Bernstein. AB is a global investment-management and research firm with more than $500 billion in assets under management and a presence in 22 countries, with more than 3,400 employees worldwide. AB serves clients ranging from institutions to individuals and private clients, and AB offers independent research, portfolio strategy and brokerage-related services tailored to clients' unique needs.

Specializations: MBA USC Marshall School of Business, FINRA Series 7, 66 and 63 Registered Representative, Life Insurance License, Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF), speaks Spanish.