

Rhonda has worked in the financial services industry since 1994, and specializes in providing wealth management advice to high net worth clients. Her goal is to create lifelong relationships by working actively with her clients to achieve financial success. She is currently the President of Apriem Advisors. Rhonda lives in Silverado, California with her husband, Jim, and her three sons, Corey, Cole and Chance. She is actively involved in her children's education, and enjoys watching them play sports. Rhonda takes pleasure in being outdoors and traveling. Helping abused and underprivileged children is one of Rhonda's passions. She volunteers at Childhelp USA , & KidWorks. Rhonda is a licensed Registered Investment Advisor.