

Robert Forrester received his Bachelors in Business administration at the University of Denver. He would also earn his MBA in Capital Markets at Daniel's College of Business in the University of Denver. Robert has over 22 years of experience in the Finance industry and he currently works as the Senior Vice President in Alliance Bernstein. Forrester's goal is to help financial advisors better allocate client assets. He also enjoys helping advisors with marketing and client acquisition. His role in AB is to manage relationships with broker dealers, RIA's, and bank trusts. He has been of member of the CFA Society in Orange County, the Financial Planning Association, and The Center For Investment & Wealth Management.