

Before limiting her practice to Orange County family Law matters, Shiry practiced complex business litigation, representing Fortune 500 companies and high net worth individuals in litigation and alternative dispute resolution. She was named to the Southern California "Rising Stars" List by Los Angeles Magazine in 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016.

Shiry currently serves on the Dean's Executive Board at the University of California, Irvine, School of Law, the Advisory Board at the UCI Paul Merage School of Business, and the Leadership Development Committee of the Orange County Bar Association. She is also a member of the Robert A. Banyard American Inn of Court. Shiry served as Chair for the Young Lawyers Division of the Association of Business Trial Lawyers in Orange County and as Chair of the Public Law Center's annual Volunteers for Justice Dinner Silent Auction Committee from 2013 to 2015. Shiry served as Vice President of the Orange County Jewish Bar Association from 2010 to 2012, and as an active member of the Dean's Campaign Cabinet at UCI Law and the Orange County Bar Association's Community Outreach Committee.

A Southern California native, Shiry earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Law & Society, with Honors, at the University of California at Santa Barbara, and her juris doctor at Santa Clara University School of Law, where she was named Pro Bono Graduate of the Year. Shiry served as an Articles Editor on the Santa Clara Law Review and as a Writer and Oralist in Santa Clara Law's Honors Moot Court Program. She also served as a judicial extern at the United States District Court, Northern District of California, the California Court of Appeal, and the California Superior Court of Santa Barbara and Santa Clara Counties. All this gave Shiry recognition as among the best in her practice by U.S. News and World Report, Best Lawyers and Super Lawyers.
