

Ted Wim specializes in all facets of asset and wealth management industry. Corporate matters, distribution, marketing, information systems, business efficiency and process improvements, acquisitions, divestitures and external vendor management. Additionally knowledgeable on accounting, tax and investment issues related to complex investments, derivatives, hedge funds, venture capital funds, private equity funds, mutual funds, common trust funds and other types of commingled investment products.