

Jason Stern

Jason Stern is the CEO of Gift of Time a business consulting firm that helps companies focus on completing projects and tracking metrics that drive success. Previously he was President & CEO of three Orange County based companies, Paul's TV & Appliances a retail chain of 48 stores, Xceliware a warehouse management software company and Adopt A Highway Maintenance Corporation, a private company that solicited sponsorships and performed roadside trash pick-up.

Mr. Stern spent the earlier part of his career in Sales and Marketing roles with the Nestle Food Company and General Electric (GE) in their consumer finance division. The training that he received from these two world class companies provides the framework for helping clients in all phases of growth.

Mr. Stern graduated from Washington University in St. Louis with a Bachelor's degree and earned an MBA degree from Harvard Business School. His Board of Advisory work includes (both past and present): Young Presidents Organization (YPO), Chef Master Corporation, UCI Law School Dean's Advisory Board, and the JCC of Orange County.

Mr. Stern lives in Newport Beach, CA with his wife and three children. He is an avid tennis player, and enjoys running, swimming, surfing and golf. He also finds time to coach his kids' sports teams.
