

Rehema Feleke MD MBA

Rehema has been practicing Emergency Medicine for 10+ years and is a recent graduate of the UCI Healthcare Executive MBA program. She and her team, FunBand, were the first place winners of UCI's 2015 New Venture Competition, consumer track. She is now the co-founder and CEO of FunBand Inc, bringing to market an innovative child tracker.

Rehema attended Loma Linda University Medical School followed by Emergency Medicine residency in Chicago and fellowship in Pediatric Emergency Medicine at University of Florida. She is an Assistant Clinical Instructor at UCLA, Santa Monica hospital. She is Vice-Chair of Acute Care Services at the newly opened Martin Luther King Jr Community Hospital in LA. She also practices pediatric emergency medicine at Miller Children's Hospital in Long Beach.